At the Parish Council Elections in May, three members of the council retired. They were:

Berridge Eve, Keith Slaughter and Peter Waller. I am grateful for the contribution they made to the effective working of the council, they will be missed.

At the election all other existing members were returned and were joined by a new councillor—Justine Good, we welcome her to the council.

We now have two vacancies on the council and would like to fill

The council was greatly saddened by the death of a past Chairman of the council—Nigel Smith — please see Clerk's Corner on page 2.

I am sure that residents will agree that this year's Carnival was one of the best. As you will see elsewhere the Carnival Director, John Sills has already started planning the 2012 Carnival.

Trimley Carnival

The villages are riding high after a highly successful carnival.

More than a 1,000 people flocked here to join in the fun with the theme being "schooldays & holidays".

It was great to have the scouts, sea cadets, guides, air training corps, dancing troupes,

Clerk's Corner

Since our last edition in March, the local elections were held in May and following the uncontested election for this parish, ten councillors were elected, our newest councillor being Justine Good. There is still a vacancy on the council and if you are interested in local issues and would like to apply, please contact me on tel 01394 210337 or by email, see back page for address.

As I write this, another successful Trimley Carnival took place at the weekend, probably one of the best ever, although I seem to recall 1981 was a very good year!!! (I was the Carnival Queen – much to my two son's surprise!!! – I had to remind them I didn't always look like a stressed out mum of teenagers!!)

It was great to see so many people turn out to watch the procession and later enjoy the attractions at the Trimley Sports and Social Club. The success of the carnival is down to just three people who work incredibly hard all year and who were nearly stopped in their tracks by the newly introduced extortionate road management charges which have been introduced, which I'm sure you will have read about in the local press. However, thankfully all was sorted and it was nice to see the local SNT and particularly the Special Constables who give up their free time, providing the traffic management of the procession. Despite the success of the carnival this year, it could be the last if more people do not come forward to offer their help either before or on the day itself. If you are interested in preserving this village tradition, then please contact John Sills on 210721 or via the website, www.trimleycarnival.co.uk

I cannot complete my column without saying a few words about our highly regarded ex-chairman Nigel Smith who sadly passed away in April. His remembrance service held at St Mary's Parish Church in Woodbridge was attended by so many people whose lives he had touched whether it was family, friends or through business. The tributes read out by his life long friends were a testimony to Nigel's warm and considerate personality, which was something that was experienced by anyone who met him, whether you had know him for years or just exchanging pleasantries up at the Farm Shop. He will be very sadly missed.

Clean it up.

Whilst most dog owners are the responsible type and 'pick up' after their dogs, there are some that give everyone else a bad name! There is a real problem in some parts of the village with dog fouling, despite dog bins being in fairly close proximity. Worst affected areas are public footpaths and rights of way and both we and SCDC take this matter very seriously, with the District Council imposing fines of up to £1000 for culprits that are caught. If seen and identified, persistent offenders will be reported to SCDC.
